Sarah &amp; Sparky Marquis

OVERVIEW

Mollydooker is an affectionate Aussie term for Left-Hander - because both Sarah and Sparky Marquis (pronounced Markwis)—the husband and wife winemaking team based in McLaren Vale Australia—are both lefties! For almost two decades, they have been WOWing wine fans around the world with their award-winning wines. Mollydooker Wines became their sole focus in 2005. When asked to share their thoughts on what separates Mollydooker wines from the pack, Sarah & Sparky answer "It's our Watering Programme and Fruit Weight, mate." The Marquis Vineyard Watering Programme™ focuses on nurturing strong & healthy vines with balanced canopy growth to achieve the most intense fruit flavors possible. The amazing fruit flavor achieved in the vineyard is exactly what creates the Marquis Fruit Weight™ in the wine. Marquis Fruit Weight™ is the measurement of how far back on your palate you find the "velvet glove" fruit before the structure of the wine is exposed (They measure it in percentages since everyone's tongue is a different length). The higher the Fruit Weight, the more intense and rich the flavors are in the finished wine.
