

MAS DE BOISLAUZON

Châteauneuf-du-Pape

Daniel and Moinique Chaussey have established a fine track record over recent vintages, but their estate is still little-known. The 2000 vintage, including for the first time a special limited bottling, should bring an end to that state of affairs. Here are wines with a terrific price:quality rapport to latch on to while you can!

Rhône

Mas de Boislauzon Châteauneuf-du-Pape

Variety: Grenache (75%), Syrah (15%), Mourvedre (10%).
The “Cuvée du Quet” is 50:50 Grenache:Mourvedre.

Total acreage: 59 acres

Average production: 4,000 cs.

Vinificatory details: *10 days’
tank fermentation, aging
in large ovals (fudres).*

Châteauneuf-du-Pape

Châteauneuf-du-Pape

“Cuvée du Quet”