PIEDMONT ITALY

OVERVIEW

Enrico Scavino has been at the forefront of the modernist movement in Piedmont since the 1980s, and is today one of the most respected and highly regarded winemakers in all of Italy. Scavino diverged sharply from the tough-as-nails-when-young traditional style of Barolo to produce soft and lush wines that are delicious within months of release as well as later in their evolution, applying the same winemaking techniques to Barbera and Dolcetto. The "Rosso da Tavola" (a Nebbiolo, Dolcetto, Barbera, Cabernet blend), Dolcetto, and barrique-aged Barbera "Carati" are sumptuous wines that consistently rate the high scores, and yet are available at excellent prices. The most recent addition to his line-up is the Sauvignon/Chardonnay blend "Sorriso", a mouthwatering, rich blend of the two varietals with no wood aging.

ACCOLADES

"Enrico Scavino and his two daughters, Enrica and Elisa, continue to produce outstanding Barolos year in and year out. Their well-structured Nebbiolos are incredibly popular in the United States despite their limited production...Scavino is a master of Barolo." – James Suckling, Wine Spectator

"Scavino and his daughters are fashioning riveting wines at their cellars in Castiglione Falletto." – The Wine Advocate
